

Sadasivan, Balaji. Letter to No To Rape member. 5 Aug. 2008.

Excerpted -

Are you at any risk of being subject to sexual violence. If you are, I could have the family service centre or marriage counsellors contact you.

As for Section 375, there are arguments for and against it. Some people believe that matrimony is holy and sacred and the state should not intrude in the relationship between husband and wife. Others believe that matrimony is a secular arrangement which should be regulated by law and that such regulation is not intrusive. I thank you for your views on the subject.
